MATERIAL FACTS

16. On or about October 1, 2007, Plaintiff began his employment with Defendants as a “Customer Service Representative.”

17. Plaintiff was open about his homosexuality with Defendants’ employees and most employees knew that he had a same-sex life partner.

18. In or around March 2011, Defendant HILI said to Plaintiff, “I don’t think that you fit into the Donnelley culture,” referring to Plaintiff’s sexual orientation.

19. In or around July 2011, when the United States Congress was repealing the military’s “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” Policy, Defendant HILI said in the office in front of Plaintiff, “I don’t care what the government says, in this office, we still have a ‘Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell’ policy.”

20. In or around September 2011, Plaintiff became aware of an incident of sexual harassment between two other employees, Gilbert and Alyssa.

21. In or around October 2011, Plaintiff reported Gilbert’s sexual harassment of Alyssa (who had already quit because of the incident) on Defendants’ Website Complaint Hotline.

22. Plaintiff specifically reported that Gilbert touched Alyssa in a sexual and inappropriate manner whenever he would talk to her.

23. Plaintiff also complained that Gilbert consistently said inappropriate comments to all of the female employees and that is why four (4) female employees had already left.

24. Plaintiff received no response from the Human Resources Department. Plaintiff re-visited Defendants’ Website where he learned that “the issue had been resolved.”

25. In or around the middle of October 2011, Defendants' Human Resources Department stated they would be meeting with each employee and Defendant HILI in response to various complaints.
26. During this meeting, Plaintiff again complained about the sexual harassment and hostile work environment. Plaintiff stated that he already complained but nothing had changed.
27. In or around the end of October 2011, Plaintiff told Defendant HILI that he would have to take several days off from time to time for a medical condition (HIV) and that he was going to file for FMLA.
28. Defendants originally denied Plaintiff's FMLA application because he could not include "specific days." Plaintiff informed Defendants that he would require intermittent days off in order to have periodic tests and doctor's appointments.
29. In retaliation for Plaintiff's complaints and Plaintiff's request for FMLA leave, Defendant HILI stopped speaking to Plaintiff or acknowledging Plaintiff, whereas he used to have a friendly demeanor towards Plaintiff.
30. In retaliation for Plaintiff's complaints and Plaintiff's request for FMLA leave, Defendant HILI began to overly criticize Plaintiff's work.
31. In or around January 2012, Defendant HILI told Plaintiff that he could leave a little early if the work flow permitted.
32. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendant HILI terminated Plaintiff under the pretext that he was incorrectly submitting his timesheets and that he was leaving early.
33. Defendants' reason for terminating Plaintiff is pretext as Defendants implemented the timesheet system in or around September 2011 but never provided any training.
34. Plaintiff was never told he was submitting the timesheets incorrectly.

35. Plaintiff also said to Defendant HILI “you told me I could leave early if work flow permitted.” Defendant HILI responded, “I never said that.”
36. Defendants’ other employees were incorrectly submitting their timesheets and leaving early with authorization but were not terminated.
37. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff for having requested qualified FMLA leave.
38. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff in order to interfere with his ability to take FMLA leave.
39. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff because of his disability and/or perceived disability (HIV status).
40. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff for having complained about the sexual harassment and hostile work environment.
41. Defendants’ reason for terminating Plaintiff was pretext to cover their discriminatory animus towards Plaintiff for having complained about Defendants’ unlawful practices.
42. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff because of his sexual orientation.
43. As a result of Defendants’ actions, Plaintiff felt extremely humiliated, degraded, victimized, embarrassed, and emotionally distressed.
44. As a result of Defendants’ discriminatory and intolerable treatment of Plaintiff, he has suffered severe emotional distress and physical ailments.
45. As a result of the acts and conduct complained of herein, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the loss of income, the loss of a salary, bonuses, benefits and other compensation which such employment entails, and Plaintiff has also suffered future pecuniary losses, emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and other non-pecuniary losses.
